We all know “Lucy Locket Lost Her Pocket” but have you ever stopped to wonder how one can actually lose a pocket? How a petticoat is held up? How the common 18th century woman dressed? All these mysteries of 18th century dress and more will be answered as the Readington Museums proudly presents, 18th Century Clothing from the Inside Out. Bev Altrath and Arlene Soong, will provide a fun and insightful look into what exactly went on under all those 18th century petticoats. Starting with foundation garments, they will explain and show how a garment was worn, including accessories and outer wear for the everyday working woman.

Made possible with funds from the Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission, a partner of the New Jersey Historical Commission.
