

Scarlett Doyle Honored with Readington Township Volunteer of the Year Award in 2023

Mayor Juergen Huelsebusch presents 2023 Volunteer of the Year award to Scarlett Doyle

Scarlett Doyle has been recognized for her exceptional and sustained volunteer efforts by being presented with the prestigious Readington Township Volunteer of the Year award in 2023.

Throughout the years, Scarlett's commitment to community service has been unwavering, with a focus on various committee assignments and volunteer roles spanning Hunterdon and Somerset counties, as well as within Readington Township. Her dedication extends to organizations such as the Whitehouse Rescue, local charities, and numerous community events.

Notably, Scarlett and her family are the proud owners of Readington River Farm, a preserved farm that serves as a hub for ongoing events and stands as a testament to the promotion of Readington's agricultural history. In addition to her contributions to community organizations, Scarlett has played a pivotal role in enhancing traffic safety and improving the CR 523 road corridor over the past four (4) years. Her tireless efforts in this regard have not only created a safer environment for residents but have also positively impacted the community at large.

Currently, Scarlett continues her commitment to community safety by actively supporting Readington Township's Police Safety programs, demonstrating her ongoing dedication to making Readington a safer and more secure place for all. The Readington Township Volunteer of the Year award serves as a testament to Scarlett Doyle's outstanding contributions to the community, recognizing her as a true beacon of volunteerism and community engagement.

Thank you, Scarlett, for your years of dedication & service to Readington!! FACEBOOK

